

Dan Leifel served District 87 as a substitute teacher, Advisory Council member, and member and President of the School Board. Dan was the major author, researcher and historian for Our Proud History (a history of District 87 from 1847-2007) published for the sesquicentennial celebration. Mr. Leifel's other services to the community include founding board member and first president of Beyond the Books Educational Foundation; ODC Board of Directors; Regional Planning Commission; founding board member and chairman of Bloomington Cultural Commission; Lincoln Bicentennial Commission; Crimestoppers of McLean County, and author of Diamond Harvest, a history of the Illinois Farm Bureau.