

Glen Newton began his teaching career with Bloomington Schools in 1959 and retired in 1993 after having served as a history teacher, counselor, President of the Bloomington Education Association and principal. Glen was a leader among elementary principals and served as a mentor. Mr. Newton developed and supervised summer programs for children at State Farm Park for several years. Mr. Newton and his wife coordinate and schedule space, volunteers, donation distribution and gift purchasing for WJBC's Brotherhood Tree. The Glen Newton Scholarship is given each year at Bloomington Junior High School.
