

James Bennett graduated from Bloomington High School in 1960 and retired as a Special Education Program Assistant in 1996. Mr. Bennett is an author of novels for teenagers and adults. Since his retirement, Mr. Bennett has given countless hours of his time to the high school as a volunteer tutor. Mr. Bennett consistently assisted students to further develop language arts skills in the areas of writing, reading, vocabulary and speaking/listening. Mr. Bennett is a leader displaying and directing others to further education, kindness, patience and dedication. Mr. Bennett is an amateur photographer and is a member of the Humane Society of Illinois.