

Janet Smith graduated from Bloomington High School in 1976 and is a Senior Finance Analyst at State Farm Bank. Janet served as Board of Education member and President from 1997-2009 and consistently provided the framework that enabled the administration and fellow Board members to achieve the goals set by the District as well as curriculum changes which were made to raise the standards for graduation requirements. Janet provided a unique perspective to the Board of Education in that she grew up in Bloomington and attended District 87 Schools as did her three children. Janet is a recipient of the Illinois State Board of Education's "Those Who Excel."
