

John Hanson graduated from Bloomington High School in 1977 and is the owner of Hanson's Cleaners in Bloomington. John was a Board of Education member for three years and currently serves as an Alderman for Ward 8 in the City of Bloomington. John's ability to work well and his communication with others, rational thinking, business approach to decision-making process, and ability to look at decision-making from a three-dimensional approach make him an effective leader. John served as BHS Booster Club President and is a strong advocate for District 87.