

Tom Stock graduated from Bloomington High School in 1960 and received his BS from Indiana University. Tom was a world record holder in the 200-meter backstroke from 1960-1964 as well as a world record holder in the 100-meter backstroke in 1962. Tom earned eight national championships in swimming and represented the United States in competitions in Europe, South America and Japan. Tom has been inducted into the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame and the International Swimming Hall of Fame. Tom retired in 2008 as a General Partner and Chief Operating Officer of Versto, Inc., a steel transportation and brokerage company.