

Woody Shadid graduated from Bloomington High School in 1940. Woody began his career with The Pantagraph in 1935 and continued until his retirement as Advertising Director in 1986. Woody helps out various charities and organizations in Bloomington including the American Red Cross of the Heartland, BroMenn Foundation, Miller Park Zoo, the Humane Society of Central Illinois, Family Services of McLean County, the Salvation Army and the Jaycees. Woody serves as a member of the Chamber of Commerce (Outstanding Contribution to Chamber of Commerce Award) and United Way (Most Active Participant). Woody also served in the United States Navy as a Chief Petty Officer.