

My SMART™ Journey

Success is a journey, not a destination. The doing is often more important than the outcome. ~Arthur Ashe

A Continuum for Your Consideration...

Finish this thought: "I use..."

For Reflection and Discussion...

- » Where are you along the continuum at the start of this course?
- » Where would you like to see yourself—realistically—by the conclusion of this course?
- » What skills or applications are missing from the continuum?
- » How does your personal placement along the continuum impact students' learning?

Kristen's Tips for Moving Along the Continuum:

- ★ In the beginning, keep it simple.
- ★ Use your SMART Board™ every day, as much as you can.
- ★ Let your students interact with the SMART Board™ daily.
- ★ Support each other by sharing what you learn and what you make.
