
One factor is placed in the vertical tray and one in the horizontal tray. The product is formed by creating a rectangle with the dimensions of the factors in the trays.

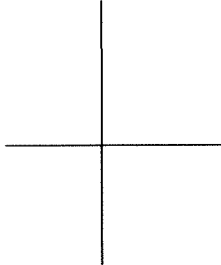

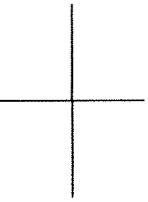

Delete this before duplication...

—

+

+

—
