

On a computer:

- navigate to the Google homepage
- you should see your profile picture (or your initials if you haven't added a photo yet) in the upper-right corner. Click it.
- A drop-down menu will appear directly below it. Next, click Add another account.
- Sign in to your District 87 account with the email and password sent to your parents last week.
- To switch between your D87/BACC and home school accounts, press your photo again. Each additional account will show up as an option in this menu now. Right-click whichever one you wish to use

On your iPhone:

- open the Gmail app on your iOS device, tap on your profile picture icon in the top right corner
- select Use another account.
- you'll be asked to choose the type of account (email client) you want to add, choose Google
- Then follow the on-screen prompts to sign into your District 87 account with the email and password sent to your parents last week
- You can toggle between email accounts by tapping your profile picture and then choosing the account from the menu that pops up

On your Android Phone:

- Start by opening your Gmail app and then tap on your profile picture or icon in the top right corner
- select the "Add another account" option
- Then choose Google for the type of account
- Then follow the prompts on your screen to sign in to your District 87 account with the email and password sent to your parents last week
- These prompts may vary depending on what kind of Android device you have
- You can toggle between email accounts by tapping your profile picture and then choosing the account from the menu that pops up
