Advisor name _____

1. A junior or a senior who participates on a varsity interscholastic athletic team, a pom pon squad member or a participant in Marching or Concert band, a varsity football/basketball cheerleader listed below may be exempt from physical education for the first or second semester. This exemption will depend on the number of activities participated in during the school year and/or the length of a particular sport season. A student permitted exemption from physical education must enroll in six credit-generating courses. A study hall is not a credit course.

Varsity sport seasons, cheerleading and pom pons that overlap semesters may be used for PE Exempt for both fall and spring exemptions.

Note: Color Guard students must enroll in physical education for the second nine weeks of the first semester. Color Guard participation for the first nine weeks and the physical education participation for the second nine weeks will generate 1/2 unit of physical education credit.

Note: Students must enroll in six or seven credit generating classes in order to be eligible for physical education exemption. Due to the flex schedule for the 2020-21 school year, students have the option of taking six or seven courses. Students enrolled in a six period day must take six credit-generating courses. Students enrolled for a seven period day must take at least six credit generating courses.

Student Agreement

I understand that my continued eligibility for PE Exempt is dependent upon my participation in the selected activities or courses above. If I do not participate, or cannot participate due to unforeseen circumstances, my status in PE Exempt will be reviewed by the high school administration.

Please sign to indicate understanding and agreement with the PE Exempt program and policies. Return the signed form to your guidance counselor. Know that there are responsibilities associated with having a signed PE Exemption Form. Should you fail to try out, get cut by the coach, or quit the team after making the team or activity that exempts you, there are consequences that will be applied toward your fulfillment of BHS PE requirements.
