Rules Of The Classroom

1. Respect yourself and others around you.
2. Give everything you do your 100%.
3. Do not speak while the teacher is speaking.
4. Do not shout out comments—RAISE your hand.
5. Make good choices.

Students will be given a positive reward chart. They will get a new chart each month. Every time they are caught following the class rules, they are given a small sticker for that chart. If they fill that month's chart before the month is over, they are allowed to pick out of the prize box. If they make it an entire day without getting their name on the board, they will get a punch on their "Best Behavior" card (when this card is full they may choose from a catalog of rewards). However, when the student is caught not following the classroom rules, these steps are followed:

1. First time the student is given a verbal warning.
2. Second time the student must write their name on the board and they have lost their card punch for the day.
3. Third time the student is given a time out and I will email or send a note home. The note home must be signed by a guardian and returned the next day so that I know that the note made it home. 😊 If it is not returned, a phone call home will be made.

I have read and understand each of these rules and agree to follow them.
