

Reading at Home

Dear Families,

As you spend some time at home this week, reading a good book with your child is a great way for him/her to continue to improve skills and increase a love of reading.

Consider using some of the attached ideas to help you talk with your child about what he/she is reading.

Thank you! Stay warm and safe!

Mrs. Drengwitz
Title I Reading Interventionist